

Nora Dynowski is a sophomore at Conard High School in West Hartford, Connecticut and a chorister in the Boys and Girls Choir at nearby St. James's Episcopal Church, where she began organ lessons with Dr. Jason Roberts. She is an accomplished composer and the St. James's Choir has performed her compositions. At school, Nora sings in an a cappella group, participates in musical theater productions, and competes on the track team. When not at school or church, Nora enjoys figure drawing.
